

Children's Court of Western Australia

STOP

Please read the COVID-19 directions below

YOU ARE NOT PERMITTED TO ENTER OR REMAIN IN THE PERTH CHILDREN'S COURT IF

- you should be in isolation or quarantine
- you are feeling unwell and are experiencing any of the following symptoms – cough, fever, sore throat or shortness of breath
- you fail to comply with government health directions including social distancing, mask wearing and safe hygiene practices
- you fail to comply with the directions of security officers or court staff
- you are a member of the public with no involvement in a matter before the Court today

AND FURTHER

UNVACCINATED COURT AND TRIBUNAL WORKERS IN THE LIST BELOW ARE NOT PERMITTED TO ENTER THE PERTH CHILDREN'S COURT

- Employee of the Department of Justice or Courts and Tribunal Services who works in the Children's Court
- A person who provides goods or services at the Children's Court or is employed or engaged by someone else to do so (including volunteers)
- A person who provides a judicial support function including all judicial support officers and staff, administrative support, custodial, security, court risk assessment and victim support officers
- Legal practitioner
- Assistant to a legal practitioner
- Police prosecutor
- Assistant to a police prosecutor
- Coroner's investigator
- Sheriff or summoning officer
- Journalist or media court reporter
- Court cleaner
- A person who provides court maintenance services
- A person employed by a labour hire firm to perform one of the above functions
- A work experience student on a placement at the Children's Court

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'H. Quail'.

Judge Hylton Quail

President of the Children's Court of Western Australia

5 February 2022